Dear Mrs. Shakespeare:
I wish to congratulate you on the award which you have received for your good work in making the scholarships possible for the two young ladies in nurse's training at Bryan Memorial hospital.

When I purchased my book, I didn't think at that time that I would come in contact with these two young ladies quite so soon, but last October I was a patient at the hospital and was cared for by both girls. I can assure you that your work has not been in vain, as both girls were exceptionally good workers, kind, thoughtful and intelligent, all of which are the requisites for good nursing.

May your good work continue in this same successful way.

Mrs. Sidney C. Poska,

Dear Mrs. Sheakespeare:
Best wishes are in order so here are just a few, good luck and endless happiness in everything you do. I am so proud of you and the wonderful work you are doing.

Mrs. W. Harold Allen,

Dear Editor:
The Inventory conducted at the Cornhusker hotel Saturday, Feb. 14, served as a great beacon of the truth-revelation against the evil force of discrimination.

Marine Fighter Squadron 113 Reactivated

Authorization to reactivate Marine Fighter Squadron 113, Marine Air Reserve unit based at the Lincoln Naval Air Station, has been received, it was announced recently by Captain James L. Cooper, commanding officer of the Marine Air Detachment.

"Orders have been received from the Marine Air Reserve Training Command, Naval Air Station, Glenview, Illinois, to accept up to 36 flight and ground officers, and 110 enlisted members in the Organized Marine Air Reserve to bring the "Whistling Devils" squadron to operating strength," stated Captain Cooper.

Under the Leatherneck Air Reserve program, reservists between the ages of 17 and 32 attend training for one week-end each month, at the Naval Air Station at Lincoln, and receive four days drill pay.

Since the mobilization to active duty of the personnel in VMF-113 last October, the squadron has been in an inactive status. Under the current authorization, applications will be accepted immediately.

Veterans and non-veterans, as well as Marine Corps Reserve officers anywhere in the state of Nebraska are eligible for the program, explained the Marine Air Detachment Commanding Officer.

Sunday School Lesson

THE SETTLEMENT IN CANAAN

Scripture—Joshua 1:1-9; 14; 24; Judges 2:6-23; 21-25.

Memory Selection—Be strong and of good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest. Joshua 1:9.

PRESENT DAY APPLICATION

Frederich D. Jordan
Los Angeles, Calif.

The experiences of the Hebrew people in seeking settlement in Canaan at the time in our lesson are being duplicated in many respects today as their descendants undertake to establish their kingdom in Palestine today. As there were diverse tribes then, today they are people out of many nations and cultures. The unifying element then was their devotion to Jehovah God and this continues today. Devotion to God can unify diverse peoples and cultures and make it possible for them to live together in peace. This lesson is sorely needed today for the nations of this world that find it so extremely difficult and in many instances impossible to treat each other fairly and to live together peaceably because of differences in physical features, different shades of skin color and differences in cultures. Devotion to God and right relations with one's fellowman will insure the establishment of a strong nation, will insure the building of a good home, will bring peace and happiness to any people.

Main requirements stressed were the ability of the member to attend drills on the first week end of each month, and to pass the physical examinations prescribed for Marines.
